

Rebuttal of anti-Iranian propaganda: Hasbara defeated

Today, a Zionist troll made this comment on my YouTube channel, and I thought it deserved a reasoned response. The Hasbara mouthpiece opined that Iran is “one of the most repressive regimes on earth, a theocratic nightmare that regularly punishes and kills journalists, conducts mass hangings for people convicted of the crime of ‘homosexuality’, and exports terrorism across the region. It is the single most violent country on the planet.”

My response is as follows:

If Iran was such a repressive regime and Islamic dictatorship than why did the 25,000 Iranian Jews reject an offer by Israel to move there and instead chose to remain in Iran?

The principal exporters of terrorism in the world are Israel and its belligerent backer, the USA. Iran, on the other hand, has been a victim of Israeli and US terrorism on many occasions. Who assassinated those Iranian nuclear scientists? Who sponsors the terrorist groups Jundullah and MEK who have killed thousands of Iranians in terror attacks? Who deliberately shot down an Iranian civilian plane in 1988 killing nearly 300 innocent civilians including 66 children in a horrendous act of terrorism? Who sponsored Saddam Hussein’s brutal invasion of Iran in 1980? Who overthrew the democratically elected Iranian government in the 1953 coup? (Answer to all the above: the USA & Israel)

Iran hasn’t invaded another country in hundreds of years, yet Israel, since its criminal conception in 1948, has invaded and occupied nearly all of its neighbouring states in addition to wiping Palestine off the map. The USA has launched dozens of overt and covert wars of aggression against dozens of countries since WW2.

All of the facts demonstrate that the real terrorists reside in Washington and Tel Aviv, not Tehran, despite the discredited inferences of the aforementioned Zionist Hasbara commenter.

Addendum:

Here is further dialogue with the same Hasbara troll. He writes:

“You don’t even know what the word ‘terrorism’ means. lol. Do you really think targeted assassinations of nuclear scientists equates to ‘terrorism’? Surely you’re not that naïve. I too could create a long list of Iranian involvement in terrorism, actual terrorism too, not the fantasies of juveniles. Why does Iran drape it’s missiles with signs reading ‘for the destruction of Israel’ during military parades? Is that not highly provocative? Isn’t it reasonable for Israel to consider that a serious threat and act accordingly? Israel on the other hand is a beacon of light in a sea of Islamic darkness. The one best hope for peace and a prosperous future in the region. You can ask Salmon Rushdie about the peaceful and tolerant Iranians. Or ask the descendants of Zahra Kazemi, a Canadian journalist beaten to death in Evin Prison. You’re backing the wrong horse buddy, and it’s a shameful position to be in considering you’re in the west and able to write and say the stupid things you do because your freedom to do so is protected, unlike it would be if you were in Iran.”

I wrote in response:

Israel is not only guilty of terrorism against the Palestinians, the Lebanese, Egyptians, etc, it has also conducted terrorist acts against the West (the Lavon Affair, USS Liberty attack, Operation Trojan, etc.) in order to frame its enemies. By way of deception thou shalt do war is the motto of Israel’s Mossad.

Israel is an illegitimate, bellicose state committed to perpetual war against its perceived enemies. Israel needs enemies and creates them artificially as a means of justifying its expansionist agenda, like the US has done on plenty of occasions.

You cite a few Sabbath Goys who are paid to propagandize for Israel as proof that Iran is bad? Hilarious.

Is Israel a “peaceful and tolerant” society? Is that why Israeli rabbis openly call for the slaughter of Arabs and designate non-Jews as “slaves” (look up Ovadia Yosef’s comments on how “non-Jews exist to serve Jews as slaves”). Is the mass murderer Baruch Goldstein a good example of a peaceful and tolerant member of this society?

What about the fact the Netanyahu regime is rounding up thousands of African migrants and sticking them in prison camps before deporting them back to Africa? Israeli MPs have called the black migrants “cancer” and called for their mass expulsion from “peaceful and tolerant” Israel.

“The West” is no more free than your propagandistic view of Iran. “The West” locks people up in prison for the things they say that Zionists don’t approve of (hence “hate speech” and “holocaust denial laws”).

The West did invent and at one time champion the concept of free expression, but the Zionist gang has long since extirpated that tradition in their quest for world dominance.
